HISTORY.

THE original members of this Church were gathered from the counties of Devonshire, Dorsetshire, and Somersetshire, Eng., and sailed from Plymouth on the 20th of March, (O. S.) 1630. They were organized in Plymouth 'previous to sailing. Their ship, the Mary and John, of 400 tons burden, brought over in all 140 passengers, and landed at Nantasket Beach, Mass., May 30, 1630.

Roger Clap, one of its original members, gives the following account of the organization of the Church:

"These godly people resolved to live together, and therefore as they had made choice of those two Rev'd servants of God, Mr. John Warham, and Mr. John Maverick, to be their ministers, so they kept a day of solemn fasting in the New Hospital at Plymouth, Eng.," (just before embarking) "spending it in preaching and praying; where the worthy man of God, Mr. John White of Dorchester, in Dorset, was present and preached unto us the Word of God in the fore part of the day, and in the latter part of the day as the people did solemnly make choice of, and call, those godly ministers. to be their officers, so also the Rev'd Mr. Warham and

Mr. Maverick did accept thereof and expressed the same."

After landing at Nantasket and exploring the coast as far as Watertown, on the Charles River, they chose Mattapan as a place of settlement, and named the town Dorchester. But in the years 1635 and '6, the larger part of them removed, together with their Pastor, Mr. Warham, to this town, which at first they called Dorchester, afterwards Windsor. Mr. Maverick had died previous to their removal from Massachusetts, but those left behind being joined by a new company who came from England in 1635, with Rev. Richard Mather, organized another church in Dorchester, with Mr. Mather for their Pastor. The month of the year in which this Church left Dorchester is only known from the following record of the organization of the new church, left by Rev. Increase Mather, the son of its Pastor. Mr. M. "set upon the great work of gathering a Church, the church which was planted in that place being removed with the Rev. Mr. Warham to Connecticut. There was an essay toward gathering a church April 1, 1636, but by reason that the messengers of neighbor churches were not satisfied concerning some that were intended members of that foundation, the work was deferred until August 23d, when a Church was constituted in Dorchester, according to the order of the Gospel, by confession and profession of Faith." This fixes the date of removal at a time somewhat earlier than April 1st.

In the year 1639, the first house of worship was built on the green about twenty-five rods northeast of the present site. The choice of Mr. Nathaniel Chauncey as colleague to Mr. Warham, in 1667, was not unanimous, and the disaffected minority separated from the church by permission of the General Court, and worshiped in the Town House for thirteen years, with Rev. Mr. Woodbridge as their minister. In 1682 the breach was healed by the choice of Rev. Sam'l Mather as Pastor of the Church, both parties accepting him. In 1761 another division occurred as a result of disagreement concerning the location of a new meeting-house. The majority fixed the site on the south side of the Farmington River, and nearly opposite where the Union School-house now stands. This led to a secession of those who lived in the northern part of the parish. A new church was formed, and a meeting-house built about a mile and a quarter north of the Farmington River, in 1765, and Rev. Mr. Hinsdale was chosen Pastor. This division continued thirty-three years. In 1794, a reunion was brought about chiefly through the agency of men who had fought to establish National Independence. By a compromise, the present site was selected, and the house of worship now standing was built.

Portions of the membership of this Church were dismissed to form the churches of South Windsor in 1698, Poquonnock in 1724, Bloomfield in 1736, and Windsor Locks in 1844.

Nothing is now known of the original Covenant and Creed of the Church. The earliest form that has been preserved was adopted in 1647. Perhaps a century later the doctrinal beliefs of the church obtained new statement in articles of faith which were continued in use until February, 1879, when the present form was adopted, being the same as that of the Andover Chapel Church, Mass.

The Sunday-school connected with the Church was formed on Sunday, May 23, 1819, with Edw. Seldon, Esq., as superintendent, and thirty-two teachers and 173 scholars.

ADMISSION OF MEMBERS.

(The names of those to be received on profession of faith shall be read, and when they have presented themselves before the Church, the minister shall address them as follows:—)

DEARLY BELOVED: You are here before God and this congregation to confess the Lord Jesus Christ, and enter into covenant with God and this Church.

We trust that you know the solemnity and blessedness of this hour, and feel the importance of the step you are about to take.

Looking, therefore, unto Him in whom you have trusted, for the purity of your motives and the sincerity of your purposes, you will now give your attention to the following doctrinal truths, the experimental knowledge of which is essential to the Christian life, and to a Christian hope.

DECLARATION OF FAITH.

We believe in the existence of One only living and personal God,—the Creator, Preserver, and Supreme Ruler of the Universe,—who worketh all things according to the counsel of His own will, and whose government is holy, just, and good.

We believe that the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments were given by inspiration of God; and that they are the only authoritative record of the Divine Will.

We believe that God is revealed in the Scriptures as the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost ; these three being in all divine attributes equal.

We believe that man has fallen from the state of innocency in which he was created ; and that consequently all mankind are destitute of holiness until renewed by the Holy Spirit.

We believe that God so loved the world that he gave His Only Begotten Son to die for its redemption ; that our Lord Jesus Christ took upon himself our nature, and by his obedience, sufferings, and death made an atonement sufficient for the salvation of all men ; and that forgiveness of sin and eternal life are therefore freely offered to all who repent of sin with faith in Christ.

We believe that in the same love in which God gave His Son to die, He sent the Holy Spirit to make his truth effectual ; that through his gracious influences alone men are convinced of sin, renewed, and sanctified ; and that those who are thus led to repentance, having been chosen in God before the foundation of the world, will be kept by the power of God, through faith, unto salvation.

We believe that for the comfort and strengthening of His followers, and for testimony to His truth, our Lord has established in the world a visible church ; that it is the duty of all Christians to enter into covenant with it, professing thus their faith in Christ and observing the Ordinances of Baptism and the Lord's Supper ; that it is the privilege of believing parents to consecrate their children also to God in Baptism ; and that all believers, visibly united, though called by different names, are the one body of Christ, sacredly bound to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

We believe that there will be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and of the unjust; that all must give account to Christ of the deeds done in the body, and that the wicked will go away into everlasting punishment, and the righteous into life eternal.

To this declaration of faith you freely assent.

[In token of such assent the candidate will bow the head.]

The Ordinance of Baptism will here be administered to those who have not received it. And those who have been baptized in infancy will be addressed as follows:

You, who in childhood were consecrated to God in baptism by believing parents, do now of your own accord accept your baptismal consecration and own its full obligations and privileges. (Assent will be indicated by the bowing of the head).

You do now most cordially enter into the following Covenant with God and this Church:

COVENANT.

You take the true God, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, one God in three persons, to be your God, and promise that through His grace you will be His, and His only for ever.

You give up yourself to Jesus Christ, your blessed and only Saviour, who is the Prophet, Priest, and King of your soul, and only Mediator of the covenant of grace, promising always to cleave unto Him in a way of faith and gospel obedience.

You promise by the help of Christ that you will endeavor, as much as in you lies, to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace, and that you will seek to promote and preserve the welfare and peace of the Church of Christ in this place, and be careful to avoid whatever may hurt or hinder the same.

You promise that you will, by the help of Christ, faithfully attend the ordinances of the Gospel, and watch over yourself and others, exhorting and admonishing them in love, as occasion may be—and you also promise, God helping you, to strive with us that there be a thorough exercise of discipline, as Christ has appointed there should be, without respect of persons.

This covenant you make with a willing mind, and bow yourself to Him who is the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, that by His grace you may not only make but keep covenant to His glory, your own good, and the good of those after you.

[At this point any who may be prepared to unite by letter from other churches will come forward, being called by the minister, and addressed as follows:]

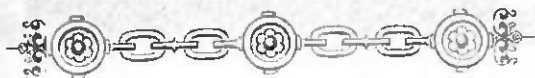

Having already confessed Christ publicly and entered into covenant relations with His people, you do now reassert your faith in Him, and assent to the declaration of faith of this Church; and in connecting yourselves with this Church transfer to it your covenant obligations.

[The Church will now arise, and the minister will say:]

We most gladly receive you to our communion and fellowship, and trust that the Lord will make us mutually helpful to each other in our united work for Christ, as well as for our own edification and strengthening.

[The minister may now give the right hand of fellowship and speak such words of greeting as he shall choose.]

[In case none are to unite by profession of faith, those uniting by letter will be received in the same manner as above.]

BAPTISM OF CHILDREN.

Children, one or both of whose parents are members of a Christian Church, may be presented for baptism when the parents so desire. They are requested to give the Pastor seasonable notice of their intention, together with the child's name and date of birth, and the names of both parents, all written in full.

ADDRESS TO PARENTS.

In presenting your child for baptism, you profess to dedicate him (her) to God, and you do hereby enter into covenant with God to be faithful in your parental relations. You promise to pray for and with this child, to instruct him (her) in the doctrines and duties of our holy religion as revealed and enjoined in God's Word. You engage to set an example of godliness and piety before him (her), and to endeavor by all the means of God's appointment to secure his (her) salvation.

These things you faithfully promise, relying upon divine grace to grant the regenerating influence of the Holy Spirit.

[Assent being given, the rite of baptism will then be administered.]

STANDING RULES.

1. An annual meeting for business shall be held in January, upon some day of the week following the second Sunday. At which meeting a Prudential Committee of three shall be chosen by ballot, who, with the Deacons, shall assist the Pastor by their counsel and influence in promoting the peace and welfare of the Church, and in maintaining gospel discipline therein.

2. A Treasurer shall be annually appointed by ballot, to receive all moneys contributed for the benefit of the Church, subject to the order of the prudential committee, and make a report of the state of the treasury at the annual meeting.

3. A Clerk shall be annually appointed by ballot, to keep a record of the doings of this Church, its Standing Regulations, recorded in a place by themselves, and a Chronological List of its Members, with the time of their admission or death, so far as he can ascertain the same.

4. Persons wishing to profess religion and thereby become members of the Church are to give satisfactory evidence of Christian character, and after having been examined by the Pastor, and approved by the prudential committee and the Deacons, and having been publicly propounded two weeks, and no objections having been made, are to be received by their profession of faith, and solemn public assent to the Covenant of the Church.

5. All letters from other Churches, recommending persons to this Church, shall be read two weeks previous to a call upon the Church to vote upon the reception of such individuals into the Church.

6. Members of this Church who go from us to reside elsewhere, are required to take a letter of dismissal from us and to unite with some Christian Church, in or near where they reside, within one year after their removal. Letters are to be so written as to be valid for use only within one year from their date. Persons neglecting to take such a letter without giving satisfactory reason will at the end of five years be cut off from membership, and their names stricken from our rolls. Before final action by the Church, however, due notice shall be given them, if their place of residence is known.

7. Members of other Churches wishing to commune with this Church for more than one year, are desired to request a removal of their Church relation to us, unless there be special reasons for delay.

8. This Church holds itself ready, on due application made to it, to dismiss any of its members who are not under discipline, and recommend them to any other evangelical church; but it is deemed an irregularity and breach of covenant for any member to withdraw from its communion without making such application. When such request is duly made it shall be laid before the Church for one week, after which, if no objection is made, the fact shall be announced to the Church, and letters given in due form. If any member has valid reasons for objecting to such dismissal, he shall, within the week, present them in writing to the Pastor or some other officer of the Church.

9. The ordinance of the Lord's Supper shall be administered on the first Sabbath of January, March, May, July, September, and November.

10. On all occasions when delegates are to be chosen to represent this Church, a plurality of votes shall elect on the second ballot.

11. Only members of the Church who are of adult age shall be entitled to vote in its business meetings. But all members of sufficient age, whether male or female, shall share this privilege of the ballot equally.

12. Any Standing Rule may be altered or amended at any annual meeting, by a vote of two-thirds of the adult members present.

REGISTER OF OFFICERS AND MEMBERS.

PASTORS.

Rev. John Warham of Exeter, England, and Rev. John Maverick, were installed Pastor and Teacher of the Church March, 1630. Mr. Maverick died in Dorchester, Mass., 1636; Mr. Warham in Windsor, April 1, 1670.
